Cooking with Artesian Salts

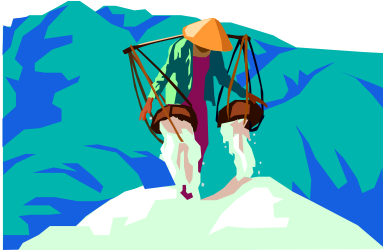

Saturday 9:15am to 11:00am

Master Executive Chef Rob White and his students from the Culinary Arts Institute of Michigan will be putting on a 2 hour seminar on utilizing the worlds salts to enhance and produce mouthwatering food.

He will explain about different salts of the world and the flavors they bring. He then includes them in several dishes he will teach the crowd how to make right in front of your very eyes.

The best part is everyone will be able to sample his creations. Chef Rob mentioned Peppercorn Shrimp and also ice cream!!!!

This workshop will be loaded with information and take home brochures so you will be able to reproduce these unbelievable dishes for your family back at home.

This Workshop is provided by Baker College and the Culinary Arts Institute of Michigan in Muskegon.

WINE A BIT

Wine Tasting Event
Saturday 2:30 to 4:30

In the Thornapple Room of the Crowne Plaza we have arranged for Kent Beverage to make 12 different wines available for you to taste and sample at your leisure from 2:30 to 4:30.

The wines will consist of four Michigan wines, four California wines, Italian wines and wines from South America .

Kent Beverage distributors will also be having open discussions regarding types of wines, food matching of wines and even tips on opening wines.

A meat and cheese display will be available during the event to “cleanse your pallet”.

A cash wine bar will be set up with the wines you will be trying, just in case you find one or two that you must have a glass of to enjoy.

"Wine improves with age. The older I get, the better I like it."

"I cook with wine. Sometimes I even add it to the food."

"Beer is made by men, wine by Gods"
